MINI-EVENTS

We have a great inflow of students from a large number of the engineering colleges across India to be a part of APAROKSHA thereby giving a wide range of exposure to the sponsors.

In addition to that we also hold multi-city promotional events all across India. These are promotional events to promote Aparoksha and its Sponsors all over the nation . There will be various events which will mainly aim to shortlist teams from various places across India to contest during the Technical Fest.

All the promotional materials like posters, banners etc will have the sponsor logo enabling us to further give exposure to the sponsor's brand all over the nation.

Such Mini events can be organised or rules and regulations can be modified or relaxed as per the desire of the sponsor which is mutually agreed upon by both the parties. An influential person of your company can even come to address our audience in tech talks.

Trihacker Cup

Countrywide event, organised by Aparoksha where teams compete in a plethora of competitions across various technical disciplines in a bid to be crowned the ultimate champions.

MEDIA COVERAGE

Aparoksha is one the most well known college technical fests in North India.

Needless to say, we are covered extensively by media with reports of our events being published in newspapers and on social media every year during the fest.
